

Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church

Second Sunday after Pentecost
June 3, 2018 • 10:30am

Welcome to Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church

Whether you are a first-time visitor or a long-time member . . .

Whether you are new to or uncertain about this whole idea of church . . .

Whether you grew up Presbyterian or Baptist or Jewish or agnostic . . .

Whether you came with a friend or just wandered in accidentally . . .

Whether you are in search of comfort or wanting to be challenged . . .

Whatever reason brought you to worship today, you are welcome here and you have made us better by being present with us. In the midst of a big and busy city, we are a church that takes seriously Jesus' instructions to love God, love one another, and love our neighbors. Our worship style is traditional and true to our Reformed heritage. At the same time, we seek to bring our faith into conversation with the world around us and the events of our lives.

After worship, we gather in our Church House for fellowship, coffee, and cookies. Please join us. We think you'll find us to be a friendly and approachable group of people trying our best to live like Jesus teaches. But if you're looking for a perfect church, we're not it. We don't always get it right. Rather, we're a group of imperfect people who understand how much we all need grace in our lives. And we believe that God's love, which never gives up and never lets go, is for everyone. Including you.

There is a place for you here. We're delighted you've joined us today.

Rev. Jenny McDevitt
Senior Pastor

Children Are Always Welcome

Your children are always welcome here at MAPC, and they are welcome to stay with you in worship. Little ones can't help but make a bit of noise from time to time. If it is your preference, however, children three and under may be taken to the Nursery on the 4th floor. The Narthex and the Children's Library are also available. Speakers provide audio of the service.

Membership and More Information

For those interested in exploring the possibility of membership or learning more about who we are and what we do, we periodically host a "Tell Me More About MAPC" conversation. The next gathering will be held June 16 at 9:30 am in the Phillips Lounge. RSVPs are helpful to Lissette Perez-Eraza at lgp@mapc.com.

Order of Worship for the Lord's Day

*"Wherever God has put you, that is your vocation.
It is not what we do but how much love we put into it."
— Mother Teresa*

Speak to us, O God, in a voice clear enough that we recognize you, mysterious enough that we remain in awe of you, and ambitious enough that we dream with you.

Gathering in God's Name

Prelude From Suite Gothique, Op. 25 Léon Boëllmann (1862-1897)
Introduction — Choral; Menuet Gothique; Prière à Notre Dame

Call to Worship Rev. Jenny M. McDevitt

It is a brand new day.

When the sun rises, it brings a clean slate and a second chance.

It is a brand new day.

When the birds sing, creation catches its breath and chaos recedes.

It is a brand new day.

When God speaks, our hearts leap and our demons slither away.

It is a brand new day.

When we worship, love is practiced and we are welcomed home.

*Hymn 474 O Splendor of God's Glory Bright Puer nobis nascitur

Prayer of Confession Christina A. Cosby

Gracious God, forgive us.

When we are filled with despair,

we forget how you said, "Let there be light."

When we feel lost and alone,

we forget how you said, "I am the way and the truth and the life."

When we worry there is no hope left for us,

we forget how you said, "I am doing a new thing, even now."

Send your Spirit to awaken our hearts and encourage our living.

Fulfill in us the truth you spoke long ago

and still promise us today. (Silent prayer)

How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord

Repton

*Affirmation of Faith

from A Brief Statement of Faith

We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life.

The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith,

sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor,
and binds us together with all believers
in the one body of Christ, the Church.

The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed,
claims us in the waters of baptism,
feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation,
and calls women and men to all ministries of the church.

In a broken and fearful world, the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,

we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth,
praying, "Come, Lord Jesus!"

Constitutional Questions

Do you trust in Jesus Christ your Savior, acknowledge him Lord of all and Head of the Church, and through him believe in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

Do you accept the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be, by the Holy Spirit, the unique and authoritative witness to Jesus Christ in the Church Universal, and God's Word to you?

Do you sincerely receive and adopt the essential tenets of the Reformed faith as expressed in the confessions of our church as authentic and reliable expositions of what Scripture leads us to believe and do, and will you be instructed and led by those confessions as you lead the people of God?

Will you fulfill your office in obedience to Jesus Christ, under the authority of Scripture, and be continually guided by our confessions?

Will you be governed by our church's polity, and will you abide by its discipline? Will you be a friend among your colleagues in ministry, working with them, subject to the ordering of God's Word and Spirit?

Will you in your own life seek to follow the Lord Jesus Christ, love your neighbors, and work for the reconciliation of the world?

Do you promise to further the peace, unity, and purity of the church?

Will you seek to serve the people with energy, intelligence, imagination, and love?

(Deacons) Will you be a faithful deacon, teaching charity, urging concern, and directing the people's help to the friendless and those in need, and in your ministry will you try to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ?

(Elders) Will you be a faithful Elder, watching over the people, providing for their worship, nurture, and service? Will you share in government and discipline, serving in governing bodies of the church, and in your ministry will you try to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ?

How precious are your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them!
If I should try to count them they are more in number than the sands.

and lead me in the way everlasting. Amen.

About the Cover Art

Hannah and Samuel, by Cody Miller

Current Sermon Series

Encountering the Holy

We don't talk about the Holy Spirit very much. We like to think about our faith, but the Spirit cannot be captured by our intellect. In fact, the Spirit resists every attempt we make to control it, not worrying a bit about our comfort or our carefully constructed plans. And thanks be to God for that. So we have to ask ourselves: what is the Spirit up to today?
