This Sunday

Adult Education: “Reformed and Reforming:
What does it Mean to be Presbyterian?”

Our Fall lecture series commemorating the Reformation was a hit! But, how does the time between the Reformation and the twenty-first century evolve into Presbyterianism as we know it today.

Join us as we start a new educational series on what it means to be Presbyterian. In the weeks ahead, we will explore Presbyterian history, key figures, traditions, worship and more!

Presbyterians often get accused of being the “Frozen Chosen,” but when one takes a close look at church history, this Christian denomination plays a prominent role in developing the framework of the Protestant Tradition. This Sunday, we will track the movement of the Presbyterian Church from the Reformation through its early days in America.

Join Christina Cosby as she presents, Chosen Not Frozen: Tracking the Movement of the Presbyterian Tradition. This Adult Education segment will lay a foundation for the weeks ahead as we hear from a variety of laity and scholars.

Shelter Open House/Orientation—This Sunday, January 14 at 1 pm

Would you be willing to volunteer periodically for our evening or overnight shifts at the Men's Shelter? Men are screened before arriving at the shelter and are often nearly ready to leave the shelter system. Men, women, and couples are welcome to volunteer as hosts for either shift. Two shifts are available.

Our evening hosts welcome guests and heat food for our guests from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm among other tasks. Our overnight hosts sleep in a separate and locked room within the shelter and help prepare breakfast in the morning. Overnight hosts serve from 8:30 pm to 7 am. Shelter leaders will be leading and Open House/Orientation on Sunday at 1 pm in the MAPC Shelter Space. Attendance does not signify commitment to volunteer, but is a great chance to learn more. Contact Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com for more information.

Hands-on Ministries

Ways to get involved at MAPC with hands and hearts!

"Faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead." The following opportunities to participate in hands-on ministries are provided by the Outreach Committee. If you are interested in exploring any of these opportunities, e-mail Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com. Let's put our faith into action!

The Thursday Open Table Needs YOU!

Can you spare 2 hours on a Thursday evening from 6-8 pm? If so, then you can help feed 120 hungry neighbors a hot meal, offering them Christian hospitality. Please contact Kathy Hoffman at kfhoffman@earthlink.net to volunteer for this opportunity (formerly known as Shelter Dinner)

Host at the Shelter

Hosts are needed for the Shelter! The Shelter is comfortable and the experience of helping these men get their lives back on track is one that will change your heart. Two shifts are offered each evening. Early evening hosts volunteer from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm; overnight hosts volunteer from 8:30 pm to 7 am. Contact Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com for more information.

Search and Care

Can you spend an afternoon with an elderly person on the Upper Eastside to walk their pet, go with them to a doctor's appointment, help them shop, balance their checkbook or even just offer them the gift of companionship? If so, contact Robin Strashun at SandC@searchandcare.org.

New York Common Pantry

The New York Common Pantry offers opportunities for volunteers to help pack and distribute food to the working poor on Saturday mornings and other times each week. MAPC has supported this very well-organized and effective organization since its inception 30 years ago. This is a wonderful way to follow Christ's command to "feed my sheep!"
