This Sunday

Adult Education, 10:10 am, Dana Chapel

Kristen Leavens presents, "Community and Commitment: Presbyterian Sacraments."

In this hour we will take a close look at how we, as Presbyterians, view our two sacraments. Furthermore, we will seek to experience the liturgy with newly-opened ears and eyes. In order to more deeply come to understand and appreciate these rituals regularly present in our worship lives.

Teen Brunch, 12:45 am, Youth Lounge

Tweens and Teens, are you looking for fun fellowship with your church family after worship this Sunday? Do you love breakfast food? Then, come to our Teen Brunch to enjoy games, fellowship, and food with your church peers. We are looking forward to seeing you there. If you want to RSVP, please contact Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com.

Farewell Luncheon for Eric Springsted, March 11, 1 pm in the Parish Hall

Eric's last Sunday with us will be Easter. We will have a luncheon to say farewell and thank you for his 2 1/2 years of service, leading us through this time of transition, after the 11:15 service on Sunday, March 11. Please come celebrate Eric's time with us and wish him and Brenda well as they move into retirement. Children are welcome and we will have a craft table for them. The suggested donation for lunch is whatever you would like to give!

Lenten Series Led by Dr. Eric Springsted

Wednesdays, February 21—March 21, 6:30-8:30 pm, Parish Hall

“Living Life Sacramentally: Faith and the Importance of the Imagination”

We hear arguments for and against Christian faith. But arguments, at best, test our faith. At its real heart is the ability for us to imagine, to see the world as being God's creation, including seeing a sacrifice at its core. In these five sessions, we will look at what role the religious imagination plays in our living faith, especially in living life sacramentally, that is, as a way of partaking in God's own life by engaging God's presence in the world. This will also consider how important the arts—poetry, music, painting and sculpture are to religious faith. They are not just window dressing, but expressions of what can be seen in God's world.

Session II: February 28—Slain from the Foundation of the World”: Christ's Atoning Death

Session III: March 7—Presbyterianism: Sacramental or Revivalist?

Session IV: March 14—The Mystical Presence

Session V: March 21—The World as Sacrament

Come at 6:30 with a sandwich. We provide beverages. The program begins at 7 pm.

Spiritual Growth and Faith Sharing Group, Thursday, March 1 at 1 pm, Library of James Lenox House

Come join us for a time of fellowship, prayer and reflection on a passage of scripture. This is a “formational” time with scripture, where we listen for what the Spirit is saying to us through the passage rather than a more formal time of Bible study. We spend time catching up with one another, praying together, and sitting in contemplative silence and reflection on the day's passage. All are welcome!

Church Family Night Friday, March 2 6 pm in the Parish Hall

Church Family Night is right around the corner! Come join the fun on Friday, March 2 for dinner, a craft activity, movie, gym play and conversation. RSVP to Wendy De Los Santos in the church offices, wlds@mapc.com. Suggested donation of $20 for adults and a donation of your choice for children 12 and under.

Moms' Night Out Monday, March 5 at 7 pm

MAPC Moms—let's go to dinner! It's been a while since we have gotten together. All moms are welcome to a relaxed evening out at an Upper Eastside Restaurant. We'll choose the restaurant when we have an idea of how many are coming. RSVP at Wendy De Los Santos in the church offices, wlds@mapc.com.

News from Rutgers Presbyterian Church's Refugee Task Force

Rutgers Presbyterian Church is co-sponsoring two more families through their partnership with CWS. The families are coming from Afghanistan on Special Immigrant Visas—meaning, one of the parents was employed in Afghanistan by, or on behalf of, the U.S. government or the Security Assistance Force and experienced an ongoing serious threat as a consequence of their employment. A family of three—mother, father and 2-year old son—was scheduled to arrive on February 8. A family of eight—mother, father, 3 daughters and 3 sons ranging in age from 6 months to 13 years—arrive today, February 22.

Most of the items needed to help furnish the apartments for these families have been secured, but financial donations are welcome and may be given to Refugee Relief Fund, to help meet ongoing needs.

Update on the first two families from Syria—all four adult children in the Khoja family have now obtained full-time jobs in New York City. The parents are enrolled in intensive ESL and literacy programs and the two younger daughters are in public school.

This past year also continued our partnership with the Abdulhamid family who arrived a year before. Several “Dinner with Mayada and Friends” were held at Rutgers with three other churches (including MAPC) during 2017, providing much-needed income to supplement Ahmad's earnings from his full-time job as a parking attendant at a nursing home.

In the past year, our work created many opportunities for volunteers to be of service. Dozens of church members, friends and neighbors donated goods and money. A church member worked with one of the Khoja adult children to help improve her writing skills, and another taught ESL to both families. A New York City public school teacher tutored the Abdulhamid children each week, and several members of our CSA farm share program continue to take turns tutoring the two school-aged children in the Khoja family on Sunday afternoons. And a team of volunteers is preparing cookbook with Mayada, The Bread and Salt Between Us: Recipes and stories from a Syrian refugee's kitchen, which will be published in September 2018 by Lake Isle Press. Sales of the book will provide additional income to the family and to our Refugee Relief Fund.*

As we prepare to help two new families, we are also developing a long-term plan for the next few years of our work. We look forward to sharing our plan in the spring.

Thank you again for your generous support and participation in these efforts.

With warm regards,
Nancy Muirhead, Chair
Refugee Task Force

Dave Mammen, Director of Administration, Programs and Special Projects

*If you would like to assist the two Afghani families in getting resettled, please contact Beverly Bartlett, bab@mapc.com, and she will get you in touch with the appropriate person at Rutgers.

Please—no glass containers. Hands-on Ministries

Ways to get involved at MAPC with hands and hearts!

"Faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead." The following opportunities to participate in hands-on ministries are provided by the Outreach Committee. If you are interested in exploring any of these opportunities, e-mail Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com. Let's put our faith into action!

The Thursday Open Table Needs YOU!

Can you spare 2 hours on a Thursday evening from 6-8 pm? If so, then you can help feed 120 hungry neighbors a hot meal, offering them Christian hospitality. Please contact Kathy Hoffman at kfhoffman@earthlink.net to volunteer for this opportunity (formerly known as Shelter Dinner)

Host at the Shelter

Hosts are needed for the Shelter! The Shelter is comfortable and the experience of helping these men get their lives back on track is one that will change your heart. Two shifts are offered each evening. Early evening hosts volunteer from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm; overnight hosts volunteer from 8:30 pm to 7 am. Contact Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com for more information.

Search and Care

Can you spend an afternoon with an elderly person on the Upper Eastside to walk their pet, go with them to a doctor's appointment, help them shop, balance their checkbook or even just offer them the gift of companionship? If so, contact Robin Strashun at SandC@searchandcare.org.

New York Common Pantry

The New York Common Pantry offers opportunities for volunteers to help pack and distribute food to the working poor on Saturday mornings and other times each week. MAPC has supported this very well-organized and effective organization since its inception 30 years ago. This is a wonderful way to follow Christ's command to "feed my sheep!"
