Adult Education Sunday Morning Series

February 23 through March 29 at 10:10 am, Parish Hall

A Discussion of the Presbyterian Church (USA) Churchwide Antiracism Policy Facing Racism: A Vision of the Intercultural Community

During these six weeks, we will discuss the PC (USA) policy on Facing Racism, using the study guide designed to go with it. As the introduction to the policy states, "This is not a time for timidity. The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) has long held strong convictions regarding the sinfulness of racism and the need to struggle against it. Speaking our own convictions now, with clarity and power, could make a tangible difference in the current struggle."

The topics for each week include:

Week 1: Biblical Imperative to Antiracism

Week 2: Envisioning a New Way of Life Together

Week 3: PC(USA) and Racial Reconciliation

Week 4: Racism 101

Week 5: Enduring Legacy of Racism in the US

Week 6: Responding as a Community of Faith

It will be helpful, though not necessary, if you can read the policy ahead of time. You can find the Antiracism Policy here.

Please come join in this discussion. Now more than ever it is critical and faithful to address racism and work to be an anti-racist community.

Wednesday Evening Lenten Series

---

Wednesday Evening Lenten Series

In the Wilderness: On Being Lost, Found and Formed by God

March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1

A light supper at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall (donations welcome)

Program begins at 7:00 pm

During the six Wednesdays of Lent, we will gather to reflect on the theme of wilderness. What are the wildernesses God's people have experienced in the past and are living through currently? What happens in the wilderness? How does God form us and lead us in the wilderness? Come join in this journey through Lent as we remember God's promises to lead us through the wilderness, with the sure hope of the promised land ahead of us and the assurance of the resurrection.

March 4 and 11, Rabbi Perry Berkowitz and Rabbi Leah Berkowitz

Journey into the Wilderness: Then, Part I; and Now, Part II

In both sessions we will examine the theme of wilderness through Biblical and post-Biblical sources. What did wilderness mean for ancient Israel, and what is its role in contemporary times—what does it mean for us theologically, spiritually, and ethically in 2020?

March 18 and 25, The Rev. Udo Middelman, *Living East of Eden (Genesis 3:24)

What does it mean to be living in a natural, social and political wilderness—apart from the wholeness of the Garden of Eden and unable to return to it until God's reign is complete.

April 1, The Rev. Beverly A. Bartlett, *Our Own Personal Wildernesses

How does God form us and lead us through our own personal wildernesses? As part of the evening's program, there will be an opportunity to use MAPC's labyrinth as a form of walking meditation or prayer, or participate in a guided experience of contemplative prayer.

April 8, A Seder Celebration, beginning at 6 pm

Led by Rabbi Perry Berkowitz and Rabbi Leah Berkowitz

Come join with members of the East Side Synagogue as Rabbis Leah and Perry lead a joyous Seder celebration. The Seder is the annual Passover celebration that recounts the story of the Israelites' release from Egyptian bondage as found in the Book of Exodus. It features liturgy, music, singing, explanation and inspiration. The purpose of the Seder is not only to focus on the past but how the past impacts the present and future. A highlight is not only the eating of ritual symbolic foods but the traditional celebratory feast, a sign of freedom (and plenty delicious!). The Seder is mostly in English, joyous, and fun. An added treat is to experience during Holy Week the story and foods that Jesus and his disciples, faithful Jews, experienced, and learn how it influenced subsequent Christian practice.

There are two options for the Seder (Both options are per person):

1. One is the modified dinner for $25 which includes the ceremonial wine, ritual foods and appetizers. This portion of the Seder lasts about two hours.
2. The second option, for those who wish to have the full multi-course traditional meal and stay for the whole evening, is to add an additional $40 for a total of $65. The entire evening lasts about four hours—and passes very quickly!

It is important that no one is excluded for financial reasons. Please contact Rev. Beverly Bartlett if you have any concerns, bab@mapc.com.

PREREQUISITE FOR ATTENDANCE: An open heart as we personally leave slavery for freedom and experience holy joy!

Since numbers must be given to the caterer in advance, we need to know if you are coming by Friday, March 27th. RSVP to Lissette Perez-Erazo in the church office, lgp@mapc.com, and let her know if you are coming for the first part (for $25), or the entire dinner (for $65).

Stewardship Update: Pledge 2020

Thank you to everyone who has turned in a pledge for 2020. As of February 20, we have received 129 pledges totaling $695,562. While many have given, and given generously, we need everyone's participation to continue our legacy of ministry in and to the city. Please prayerfully consider a faithful, financial commitment to the work of Jesus Christ through Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. You can pledge online or by calling the church office at 212-288-8920.

Worship Needs You!

At MAPC, worship takes many people, up front and behind the scenes, to create a meaningful service during which we encounter the Holy One. There are a variety of ways to be involved, and signing up is easy. We will ensure that proper training or instruction is given so that you know exactly what to do.

- Reading Scripture (9 & 11:15 am) - Each week, we read multiple passages from Scripture. A theological degree is not required to read aloud in worship. The full text of your reading will be provided to you by the Wednesday prior. If you have not read in worship recently, a pastor will meet with you in advance to review and rehearse. Sign up for scripture reading (no prerequisites): <https://signup.com/go/jzLorCa>
- Serving Communion (9 & 11:15 am) - Anyone ordained as an elder or deacon (whether you are currently serving, or have served in the past) is invited to serve communion. Typically, we need anywhere from two to six servers for each service. Sign up to serve communion here: <https://signup.com/go/FPKymKv>
