

Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church

World Communion Sunday
October 6, 2019 • 9 & 11:15 am

And the table
will be wide.
And the welcome
will be wide.
And the arms
will open wide
to gather us in.
And our hearts
will open wide
to receive.

And we will come
as children who trust
there is enough.
And we will come
unhindered and free.
And our aching will be met
with bread.
And our sorrow
will be met with wine.

And we will open our hands to the feast
without shame.
And we will turn toward each other without fear.
And we will give up
our appetite
for despair.
And we will taste
and know
of delight.

And we will become bread
for a hungry world.
And we will become drink
for those who thirst.
And the blessed
will become the blessing.
And everywhere
will be the feast.

Welcome to Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church

Whether you are a first-time visitor or a long-time member . . .

Whether you are new to or uncertain about this whole idea of church . . .

Whether you grew up Presbyterian or Baptist or Jewish or agnostic . . .

Whether you came with a friend or just wandered in accidentally . . .

Whether you are in search of comfort or wanting to be challenged . . .

Whatever reason brought you to worship today, you are welcome here and you have made us better by being present with us. In the midst of a big and busy city, we are a church that takes seriously Jesus' instructions to love God, love one another, and love our neighbors. Our worship style is traditional and true to our Reformed heritage. At the same time, we seek to bring our faith into conversation with the world around us and the events of our lives.

After worship on Sundays, we gather in our Church House for fellowship, coffee, and cookies. Please join us. We think you'll find us to be a friendly and approachable group of people trying our best to live like Jesus teaches. But if you're looking for a perfect church, we're not it. We don't always get it right. Rather, we're a group of imperfect people who understand how much we all need grace in our lives. And we believe that God's love, which never gives up and never lets go, is for everyone. Including you.

There is a place for you here. We're delighted you've joined us today.

Rev. Jenny M. McDevitt
Senior Pastor

Children Are Always Welcome

Your children are always welcome here at MAPC, including worship. To help with that, Children's Worship Bags are located in the Narthex. Red bags are for 2nd graders and above. Blue bags are for 1st graders and below. Please use the bag that best suits your child. Children can't help but make a bit noise from time to time. Your family's presence is a delight, not a distraction. If it is your preference, children three and under may be taken to the Nursery on the 4th floor. The Narthex and the Children's Library are also available. Speakers provide audio of the service.

Membership and More Information

For those interested in exploring the possibility of membership or learning more about who we are and what we do, we periodically host a "Tell Me More About MAPC" conversation. The next gathering is being planned. Childcare provided with advance request. RSVP to Lissette Perez-Erazo at lgp@mapc.com.

Order of Worship for the Lord's Day

Call to Worship

Rev. Jenny M. McDevitt

It is for community that we have come to this place, O God.

We long for connection with you and with one another.

It is by faith that we are willing to trust our neighbor.

You never intended for us to travel through life on our own.

It is out of necessity that we lean on one another.

It is impossible to be Christian by ourselves.

When we forget who we are, O God, send us your messengers.

We are your children, your beloved creation.

Our purpose is to praise you and show others your love.

*Hymn 474

O Splendor of God's Glory Bright

Puer Nobis Nascitur

 Please stand in body or in spirit. For hymns, stand when the choir stands.*

Prayer of Confession

Rev. Beverly A. Bartlett (11:15 am)

Merciful God,

Forgive us when we misunderstand the world.

We try to stand on our own two feet, thinking that's what strength looks like.

We struggle to find every answer, believing that's what wisdom looks like.

We question those who think differently than we do, suggesting that's what faith looks like.

We jump in first and take what we need, assuming that's what courage looks like.

Teach us again, O God, what your kingdom looks like,
and help us to live as though we believe it is coming. (Silent prayer)

Lord, Have Mercy

*Summary of God's Law

... "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment?" Jesus said to him:

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.

This is the first and greatest commandment.

And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

*Passing of the Peace

The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. And also with you.

Sermon

It Takes a Village

Rev. Jenny M. McDevitt

————— Responding to God's Word —————

*Hymn 522 (11:15 am)

Lord, When I Came Into This Life

Land of Rest

*Affirmation of Faith

from A Declaration of Faith, PCUSA, 1985

We believe in one true and living God.

God is greater than our understanding.

We do not fully comprehend who God is or how God works.

The Lord's requirements are not always what we think.

The Lord's care for us is not always what we want.

Even when we are faithless, God remains faithful.

We can have confidence in God's coming kingdom even in the darkest of times.

Jesus is the long expected Savior.

He was born of woman as is every child,

yet born of God's power as was no other child.

Through his birth, life, death, and resurrection,

he brings about the relationship between God and humanity that God always intended.

The Holy Spirit is God active in the world.

The Spirit makes real in us what God has done for us.

As long as we live, we will struggle with sin, but the Spirit's presence assures us

God will complete what has been begun in us.

We must not set our ultimate reliance on any other help.

We must not yield unconditional obedience to any other power.

We must not love anyone or anything more than we love God.
We praise and enjoy God.
To worship God is highest joy.
To serve God is perfect freedom. Amen.

Prayers of the People

...Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

The Invitation to the Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Words of Institution

These are the gifts of God for the people of God.

Let us keep the feast.

Sharing the Bread and Cup

The bread you are served is gluten free.

The bronzed chalices contain wine; you are invited to take a sip or dip your bread into the cup.

The glass chalices contain juice; you are invited to dip your bread into the cup.

Those seated in the balcony, please come to the main level to receive the elements.

Information and Announcements

Adult Education

A new Sunday series, "Faithful Living in Challenging Times," begins this morning with "Act in Hope." Join Rev. Beverly Bartlett at 10:10 am in the Parish Hall.

Roof Garden Play & Fellowship

Families with children - and everyone else in the church family - are invited to come up to the Roof Garden between services this morning for playtime and fellowship. Bagels, fruit, and juice will be provided.

Meet the Director of Youth Ministry

Middle and high schoolers are invited to meet April Martin, MAPC's Director of Youth Ministry, at 10:10 am on the 5th Floor. April attended Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church in Asheville, NC as a child and First Presbyterian Church in Burlington, NC as a youth and young adult. April holds degrees from Maryville College and the Cleveland Institute of Music.

Fall Fellowship Gatherings

All members of the MAPC community are invited to a Fall Fellowship Gathering. Both paper and electronic invitations are being sent out; if you cannot attend the gathering you were assigned, please contact us and we will help find a date and time that work for you. Come together in the more intimate setting of a member's home, meet some new friends, and have a chance to hear from Rev. Jenny McDevitt. Members of the Stewardship Committee will also be present. Contact Lissette Perez-Eraza at lgp@mapc.com to RSVP or get more information.
